

Silverstein Annual

Opening: Saturday, January 14th, 6 – 8pm

Bruce Silverstein is pleased to announce this year's curatorial nominees and their corresponding selection of artists for the Silverstein Annual, Bruce Silverstein's fourth annual invitational exhibition.

As part of the gallery's ongoing effort to provide exposure to emerging artists, Bruce Silverstein with the guidance of curatorial advisor Nathan Lyons, annually invites ten prominent curators to each nominate one artist whom they feel deserves the opportunity for further exposure within New York's cultural milieu. This year, we have broadened our group of nominating curators to include industry leaders, scholars, artists, and critics. We are pleased to announce this year's curators and their selected artists:
